

CLASSIC FLYERS

FLYING DAY POSTPONED

AVENGER & CATALINA FLYING DAY NOW MOVED TO SUNDAY

Due to adverse weather conditions the planned flying day for the Avenger and Catalina has been postponed to tomorrow

(Sunday 21st May).

The Avenger will arrive late Saturday afternoon or early Sunday morning so due to the reduced time available to the Avenger it will not be possible to operate the planned customer prize draw flight

If time permits we hope to still be able to do a "Twin Avengers" engine run display on the taxi way at Classic Flyers.

The Catalina is taking its first flight at 10am on Sunday

The CAT crew will operate their Child Cancer charity flights from 11am

Such is KIWI weather at this time of year....

See you at Classic Flyers on sunny Sunday.
