2016 • CELEBRATING 150 YEARS

New Zealand Division

31st Annual Symposium

Friday 16th September 2016

"French Aerospace for New Zealand"

- now and in the future

Amora Hotel
170 Wakefield St
Wellington

Each year the New Zealand Division of the Royal Aeronautical Society presents a symposium on subjects of interest to the aviation community in New Zealand and the Pacific region.

In both the civil and military spheres French aerospace has long been a dominant force in world aviation. Today the Airbus Group is playing the leading role in their industry. From the A320 family and ATR 72 airliners operated and ordered by the Air New Zealand Group, to the RNZAF's new NH90 helicopters and smaller civil helicopters French products are playing key roles in New Zealand aviation. With the release of the Defence White Paper, Airbus is also pitching its products, the A400M and C295, to form the future core of our Air Force.

Our all-day Symposium will be opened by H.E. Mrs Florence Jeanblanc-Risler, Ambassador of France to New Zealand who has in the past worked at ICAO and ATR. We are delighted that Airbus will be joining us in Wellington this year to tell us about what the company is offering now and what it sees as the future of aerospace and aviation. They will be joined by other civil and military speakers as we look to the future of New Zealand's aviation sector.

Annual General Meeting

Following the symposium the Annual General Meeting of the New Zealand Division of the Society will be held at the Amora Hotel, 170 Wakefield Street, Te Aro, Wellington, at 1730.

All Members of the Division are invited to attend.

Awards Dinner

The Society Cocktails and Awards Dinner in association with New Zealand Aeronautical Trusts will be held at the Amora Hotel, with pre-dinner canapes from 1830 and dinner at 1900.

Your attendance at these functions is important to the Society. We particularly rely on support from Members of the Society to make these events a success and to celebrate the achievement of the awardees.
